

About NYBA's Annual Technology, Compliance & Risk Management Forum

NYBA's 2020 Technology, Compliance & Risk Management Forum is the premier in-state conference for professionals in the areas of information systems and security, compliance, risk, fraud and audit. Forum sessions cover the latest industry trends, best practices, regulatory mandates and evolving technologies. Emerging issues in cybercrime, cloud security and other online threats against banks will receive special attention.

The Forum draws 110+ CFO's, COO's, CTO's, CIO's, CRO's, Chief Compliance Officers, Network Administrators, Risk Officers, Auditors, Information Security Officers, MIS Managers, and more.

We look forward to working with you in creating an exceptional forum for the New York bank technology, compliance and risk management communities!

Feedback from Previous Exhibitors

"I felt the association did a great job fostering conversations between the exhibitors and the attendees. The mobile app was great and seemed to be in wide usage."

"NYBA's Technology, Compliance & Risk Management Forum is quickly becoming my favorite banking conference to attend. Our target audience is present and willing to speak to us about our solutions."

Banker Feedback

"My team agrees that this NYBA Forum is on our short list of favorite, most informative conferences." - CIO, $2.5 billion bank

NYBA Mobile App

NYBA will again have a mobile app for the 2020 Forum. Each exhibitor and sponsor will have a listing on the app and be able to post firm marketing material. Use the app as well to network with attendees, gain social media exposure, and more.
